Title	The collection of seeds, bulbs and tuberous roots from the Himalayan range, and the interchange of botanical products between England and India (Jul 1838-Jan 1839)

Scope and Content
The collection contains the following papers:

General Department letter, No.6 of 1838, to the Court of Directors of the East India Company, dated Simla 16th August 1838, regarding an interchange between India and England of plants and vegetable productions indigenous in the one but rare or unknown in the other country.

Governor General's Circular letter, dated 3rd July 1838, addressed to the officers in charge of the Districts in the North Western Provinces which are either in, or border upon, the Himalayan Range, requesting them to collect in the Autumn of that year [1838], and at such future periods as may be most seasonable, seeds, bulbs and tuberous roots, the produce of the Himalayan Range for transmission overland to the Court of Directors.

Letter from Dr John Forbes Royle to James C Melvill, Secretary to the Court of Directors of the East India Company, dated 31st December 1838, on the subject of the introduction of the useful and ornamental plants of England into India. With his letter, Dr Royle includes three lists of plants suitable to the Plains of Northern India and the Himalayas: 1. Annuals suited to the cold weather cultivation of the Plains of Northern India, and the summer cultivation of the Himalayas; 2. Perennials suited to the Plains of Northern India; 3. Perennials suited to the Himalayas.

Letter from Dr John Forbes Royle to James C Melvill, Secretary to the Court of Directors of the East India Company, undated, regarding seed and specimens of fine cotton grown in Naples, and its suitability for experimenting with growing in India; and recommending that the Spanish Chestnut be added to his list of plants suited to Northern India and the Himalayas.

Correspondence between James C Melvill, Secretary to the Court of Directors of the East India Company, and Dr John Lindley, Vice-Secretary, Horticultural Society of London, 30th December 1838 to 23rd January 1839, regarding the distribution of seeds from India among botanical institutions in the UK and other British Colonies; Dr Lindley's recommendation that only ornamental or useful trees and plants be sent to England which inhabit the districts in India which have a similar climate to that of England; and Dr Lindley's opinion on which seeds may be transmitted with the best hopes of success from England to India for distribution to Public

Title	Employment of Robert Wight as agricultural researcher in Madras Presidency (Apr 1837-Aug 1838)

Scope and Content

1837 correspondence between Government of Madras and Court of Directors of East India Company re Robert Wight's continuing employment as agricultural researcher. Wight solicits financial help for illustrations for his book on useful plants [Figures of Indian Plants]; mentions his own purchase of a lithographical press. Directors agree continuation of employment, on condition that regular reports on work received. Lithographed report of 1 Nov 1837 detailing Wight's experiments with senna and various cotton plants (Bourbon, Sea Island, Egyptian, New Orleans, Upland Georgian). Appendix 1: his observations (printed) on senna cultivation; Appendix 2: his observations (printed) on cotton cultivation in districts of Ganjam, Vizagapatam, Rajahmundry, Guntur, Salem, Coimbatore, Madura, Tinnevely; reprint of article on cotton experimentation from Madras Journal of Science. Appendix 3: Wight's letter to Madras Chamber of Commerce, seeking guaranteed market for crops such as coffee. Madras Chamber of Commerce suggests setting up experimental farm to cultivate cotton; Wight's reply sets out plan with estimate of costs. Letter from Royal Asiatic Society of London to Wight enclosing lichens (in ammonia) with directions for the specimens' dispersal. Government of India requests 100 copies of Wight's drawings of the lichens. 1838: minute by C M Lushington of Government of India demanding termination of Wight's duties because benefits of his work unclear; response by Government of Madras defending Wight's appointment, on grounds of his expertise (the only expert in agricultural experiments who can be called upon), his relatively low salary and fact that his book not yet complete. Includes four botanical illustrations [from Figures of Indian Plants]: Anonaceae (Uvaria Narum); Ranunculaceae (Ranunculus Reniformis); Dilleniaceae (Dillenia Speciosa); Dilleniaceae (Wormia Madagascariensis).

Scope and Content People

In addition to Nathaniel Wallich himself, the following individuals feature in or are referred to in the correspondence:

- Governor of Bengal
- Court of Directors, British East India Company
- Sir C. T. [Charles Theo] Metcalfe, Bart., Supreme Council
- H. J. Princep, Secretary to Government [Bengal] General Department
- J. Adam, Secretary to the Medical Board
- James Hutchinson, Secretary to the Medical Board
- J. Hare, Apothecary to Honourable Company
- Joseph Sabine, Secretary Horticultural Society, London

Overview

Much of this material is of a general nature, including for example correspondence, financial records, etc.; see 'General themes'. Some of the correspondence relates to an analysis of the purpose and performance of the Botanical Garden at Calcutta, with reference to potentially reducing its funding. The key document in this debate is a letter written by Wallich; see 'Letter to H. J. Princep, Secretary to Government of Bengal General Department, from Wallich, 1 Oct 1836'.

General themes

1. Plants for cultivation

- plants which could potentially be cultivated
- plants which have been successfully cultivated, including 'Exotic' plants

2. Medical Garden and supplementary/subordinate Medical Gardens

- discussion of possibly creating gardens, eg. Saharunpore
- actual establishment of gardens

3. Problems associated with cultivating plants and transporting seeds, along with possible solutions, eg.

- plants imported from Europe often do not flourish in India
- climate: high temperatures, difficulties in regulating temperature, rainy season
- transported seeds can be mouldy; ideally should be packed loosely

4. Staffing

- discharge of James Kane, Overseer of the Botanic Garden
- acceptance of new position as Gardener to the Agricultural and Horticultural Society at Nucknow

- death of Mr. Potter, Head Gardener
- arrangements to cover this work
- proposed subsequent restoration of role and appointment of gardener
- increase in pay of Head Gardener
- delay in Wallich submitting report relating to death of Head Gardener, with explanation offered by Wallich for delay

5. Miscellaneous/minor themes

- Wallich suggests official inspection of Botanic Garden

1838 -British Records on ASI about Pirana (1279)

realpatidar.com

- arrowroot [Maranta arundinacea], eg. preparation, cultivation
- educational and cultural role of Botanic Garden relating to general public
- finance, eg. expenditure, expenses, journals
- despatch of collection of plants to Botanic Garden at Seharanpure
- request that cones of Cedar and other pines are sent by Superintendent of Botanical Garden at Seharanpure
- proposed employment of Plant and Seed Collectors in different parts of the country

Letter to H. J. Princep, Secretary to Government of Bengal General Department, from Wallich, 1 Oct 1836

1. Emphases on the positive work and contribution made by the Botanic Garden, eg.
 - points out spread of garden culture in India, attributed at least partly to influence of the Botanical Garden
 - increased interest in supplies from Botanical Garden
 - new catalogue of plants to be published in 1837
 - refers to benefits for Agricultural and Horticultural Society, the Tea Committee
 - Garden open to the public for recreation and leisure
2. Discussion of various types of trees
3. Drawing attention to the problems that the Botanic Garden has faced, in particular problems associated with cultivating plants, eg.
 - hot temperatures and rainy season can make it difficult to cultivate plants
 - seeds/plants imported from Europe are often not suitable for cultivation in India
 - the difficulties of creating a suitable, artificial environment for plants to grow
 - the need for conservatories
 - a lack of resources
4. An objection to the appraisal of Botanical Garden by the Finance Committee as misleading
5. Arguments against further reduction in funding
 - refers to previous reduction in finances 1830
 - questions logic of further reduction [implication that current problems of Garden stem partly from this earlier reduction in funding]
 - negative consequences of any further spending reductions for any parts of the Garden

Title Sugar cane cultivation in Bombay (Feb 1837-Jan 1839)

Scope and Content

Proposals by Government of Bombay to encourage the better manufacture of sugar by native cultivators in Bombay Presidency, in view of crop's importance for export and the successful introduction of Mauritian sugar cane to the country. Tale of contents. Documents include: [f. 7-15] from Territorial Department Revenue, Government of Bombay, to Court of Directors in London, 29 Sept 1838, summarising actions taken to encourage manufacture of sugar by ryots (cultivators) in Bombay presidency. Enclosures include: [f 17-28] correspondence Apr-May 1837 re method of land assessment in the Presidency (assessment to be fixed according to potential of the land, not the value of produce cultivated on it); [f 31-48] correspondence Nov 1837 re collectors' experiences of land assessment at Poona and Surat; [f 54-58] from Richard Mills, Collector, Poona, to Thomas Williamson, Revenue Commissioner, 21 December 1837, concurring with Alexander Gibson's suggestion to set up sugar mills to which cultivators can bring their own cane to be crushed; from Alexander Gibson, Superintendent, Deccan Garden, proposing manufacture of sugar by iron mill rather than by current method of wooden rollers; [f 69-78] H A Harrison, Collector of Ahmednuggur, outlines plan to employ experts from Bengal and China to teach native cultivators to manufacture sugar more efficiently, 13 Jan 1838; [f 78-81] McGregor Brownrigg, Chairman, Bombay Chamber of Commerce, states that sugar samples examined show Mauritian cane to be superior, 19 Jan 1838; [f 95-98] results of Gibson's experiments comparing country and Mauritian cane, 27 Feb 1838 (repeated at f 108-11); Government of Bombay recommends to Government of India that qualified people be sent to Bombay to teach process of making sugar and sugar candy, and sends results of Gibson's experiments, 23 Apr 1838; [f 124-6] results additionally sent to Bombay Chamber of Commerce, which declares the sugar to be the best of any produced in Bombay territories, being unrefined and containing high proportion of saccharine; confident that this sugar will match the selling prices of best Mauritian sugar in England. Sample to be sent to England 'for the opinion of competent persons', 26 Apr 1838.

Title Employment of convicts in agriculture (Nov 1836-Aug 1837)

Scope and Content

Robert Wight writes (ff 4-12) to Government of Madras recommending convicts be employed as agricultural labourers on experimental farms. Wight notes inefficiency of existing tools used by labourers; proposes that prisoners work with European tools such as the wheelbarrow or the hoe. Recommends that tools for all kinds of craftsmen in the jails be upgraded e.g. fly-shuttle might be supplied for weavers. Recommends use on farms of "Wilkie's improved friction wheel plough for two horses" (sketch illustration) as manufactured by Wilkie at Uddingston near Glasgow and demonstrated at a ploughing match in 1829. (ff 12-16) Government of Madras approves the suggestion of upgrading tools in jails and orders that samples of the most useful tools be made up and distributed. Resolves additionally to procure a sample of the same plough (which has already been introduced to good effect in the Deccan) from the Government of Bombay.

Table of contents.

Extract from Revenue General letter from Madras, No.4, dated 23rd February 1838, regarding two shipments of Cassia from Canara [Kanara], and correspondence which had taken place with the Government of Ceylon and the local officers on the Malabar Coast as well as with Surgeon R Wight as to the difference existing between cassia and cinnamon.

Letter from the Government of Madras, Revenue Department, to James Cosmo Melville, Secretary at the India House, No.17 of 1839, dated Fort St George 25th February 1839, transmitting a copy of the correspondence regarding the enquiries of the Government of Ceylon respecting the difference existing between cinnamon and cassia and the result of Surgeon R Wight's investigations on that subject.

[pp 3-6] Correspondence regarding two shipments of cassia from ports in Canara, which landed at Quilon, and was then shipped to London to be sold as Malabar cinnamon, June 1837.

[pp 7-18] Letter from P Wodehouse, Assistant Colonial Secretary, to the Chief Secretary, Madras, dated 7th October 1837, regarding the distinction between cassia and cinnamon, and enclosing an extract of a letter on the subject from Dr Christison, Professor of Materia Medica at the University of Edinburgh, to Colonel Walker, Deputy Adjutant General, Ceylon. Also includes a copy of the Resolution of Government.

[pp 19-80] Further correspondence regarding the difference between cassia and cinnamon, November 1837 to March 1838. The correspondence includes a letter from Robert Wight to the Chief Secretary to the Madras Government, dated 20th November 1837 (pp 19-24); and a letter from Thomas Crawford, Master Attendant and Custom Master, to Colonel Fraser, Resident in Travancore and Cochin, dated Quilon 6th December 1837, enclosing extracts from various reference books as to the difference between cassia and cinnamon (pp 31-49).

[pp 81-128] Report by Robert Wight, Surgeon, dated Madras 4th February 1839, giving his observations regarding the distinction between cassia and cinnamon.

[pp 129-136] Correspondence in the Revenue Department regarding the difference between cassia and cinnamon, February 1839.
